

Erasmus+

Come to study or teach in Europe

What is Erasmus+ ?

- The EU's programme to support education, training youth and sport
- Funding for programmes, projects and scholarships
- Fosters EU-EU and EU-international cooperation

Higher education opportunities for individuals from outside Europe

Credit mobility + scholarships

Short-term studies in Europe that will count to your degree back home

Joint Master Degrees + scholarships

A full degree programme at Master level, with study at two or more universities

What are the benefits?

- Have a unique learning experience in Europe
- Receive double/multiple/joint degree, or recognition of your study abroad
- Acquire in-depth knowledge of Europe and European higher education
- Improve linguistic skills, intercultural experience
- Improve employability through recognition of qualifications and study periods abroad
- Academic exchange of knowledge, ideas, contacts

Credit mobility

Credit mobility in brief

- Short-term studies abroad that count to a degree back home
- International opening of Erasmus
- International strand to fund 135,000 scholarships for mobility with partner countries (2014-2020)
- Mobility for Bachelor, Master and Doctoral students – and for staff

Credit mobility: how does it work?

- Universities outside Europe can have mobility agreements with European universities
- The agreement defines:
 - How many students and staff to be sent/hosted
 - The academic disciplines on offer
 - Recognition of credits acquired
- Study periods of 3 to 12 months with scholarships (travel, subsistence costs)

Credit mobility: how to apply?

- Contact your own university to see
 - which agreements it has
 - which study programmes are open for mobility
