ERASMUS MUNDUS JOINT MASTER DEGREES

Overview

An Erasmus Mundus Joint Master Degree (EMJMD) is a prestigious, integrated international study programme, jointly delivered by an international consortium of higher education institutions. Study must take place in at least two of the Programme Countries.

Duration

An EMJMD is a master's study programme of 60, 90 or 120 ECTS credits. This means that it lasts from a minimum of 12 months to a maximum of 24 months.

Academic outcome

The successful completion of the study programme will lead to the award of either a joint degree or multiple degrees.

Financial support

The EMJMD scholarship covers your participation costs (including the tuition fees, library and laboratory costs, full insurance coverage), travel and installation costs, and includes a monthly allowance for the duration of the whole study programme.

Conditions

Individuals with a bachelor's degree worldwide can apply. Each master's programme has its list of required documents and you should check them online. The general application package includes a BA/BSc diploma and a transcript of records, CV (Europass format), recommendation and motivation letters, proof of English (or/and other) language proficiency (TOEFL or IELTS score) and the copy of passport.

How to apply

Applicants should consult online EMJMD Catalogue and contact the website of the Master Course for more information on course details and application.
